Student Spotlight

Meet Matthew

Matthew is a senior at Sacred Heart Griffin. He plans on attending Ivy Tech Community College in Muncie.

He applied to Sangamon CEO because he wanted to learn more about business. He says, "I applied because I've always been interested in Business and creating one of my own! My brother was also in the program and only had good things to say about it."

Matthew has been working on his class business. He says, "My business is Surf&Turf Detailing. I'm cleaning cars and boats!"

Matthew has learned a lot from Sangamon CEO. He says, "CEO has taught me so many different valuable lessons, the ones that I have taken the most pride in learning are self confidence and making connections with others."

CEO vs. Sharks Shark Spotlight

Alexis Dhamrait

Alexis is an alumna of the Sangamon CEO Class of 2017-2018.

Alexis is a senior at University of Illinois Springfield studying Business Administration with minors in Philosophy and Psychology. She currently is interning at the U.S. Attorney's office. Alexis plans on taking a gap year between graduation and law school. During that gap year, she has an internship planned in London, England with Non-Government Organizations.

Chase Law

Chase is a Sangamon CEO Alumni. From a young age Chase learned business strategy working in his family's automotive repair business now spanning 3 generations. In high school, he continued to expand and started his own automotive detailing shop. At 17, Chase founded a business while in the CEO program whose goal was to digitally preserve family photograph collections in a unique and convenient online cloud-based environment.

Branching off this, Chase began graphic design services under Chase Law Design providing cinematography, photography, and everything in between. A large chunk of this business, now dedicated to managing a country music band Downstate, running social media and overseeing the production, sale, and distribution of premium quality merchandise in an online store. Today Chase enjoys the continued pursuit of his previous businesses as well as the pursuit of a degree in Mechanical Engineering.

Abby Sheley

Abby Sheley was a Sangamon CEO student from 2019-2020. After experiencing the Sangamon CEO program and working with her family's business for a few summers, she had the desire to go into business. Abby currently attends Illinois State University and is involved in the business program. She is also a part of the Zeta Tau Alpha Sorority. She aspires to own her own business on day or work for a corporate company in either marketing administration.

She writes, "Sangamon CEO gave me the opportunity to not only present my own business ideas, but it also allowed me experience what the real business world looked like by visiting businesses throughout Springfield."

Bill Legge

Bill Legge owner and operator of Grab-a-Java. Former executive director of boys and girls club. Former VP of sales at Sprint. He has a BA in Marketing from Western Kentucky University and an MBA from the university of Aberdeen in Scotland. All in All, a good guy.
